

Crossroads Crash Course for Career Transition at First Presbyterian ATL September 2019

"One of the best courses I have ever attended. This class can change your life!"

Pre-registration is required. For more info or to register: atlantacrossroads.org

Step by step, this class will help guide you how to find a job if you are unemployed or anticipating a career transition. The Crossroads Course for Career Transition is based upon the "7-Step Workbook" developed by Crossroads Career Network (see www.crossroadscareer.org). This course is sponsored by the non-profit North Atlanta Crossroads group, an all-volunteer team of career ministry leaders from Atlanta churches. We have organized more than 60 courses and more than 900 attendees have participated! Many have favorably compared the class to training from outplacement services costing much more!

Our next class begins THURSDAY, September 12, at First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta (MARTA accessible!). The class includes 7 sessions, and you should plan to attend all 7 sessions. Each step assumes you have successfully completed the previous step, so it is not a "drop-in" class. The schedule for this class:

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY! TOP NOTCH FACILITATORS!

We have assembled a team of expert facilitators – professionals who are experienced in the working world as well as career ministry program leaders at major churches in Atlanta, who volunteer their time and energy to help others learn the most effective ways to search for new career opportunities! Most of our team have also been unemployed themselves, so they will understand if you are facing that challenge. You can find more information about our team of facilitators on our site (www.atlantacrossroads.org).

The $40 course fee covers only our direct costs of offering this program (workbooks online career assessment, printed material, light snack, registration and card processing fees) and also helps us to offer the course to those who need it. Our team is not compensated, all are volunteers; facilities are provided at no cost by our host church.

This program is run by volunteers on a non-profit basis. No one is paid and the tuition covers direct costs. We encourage you to pay the full $40 if you can. If you are not able to pay the $40 fee, do not register at this time. Send an email describing your situation to registrar@atlantacrossroads.org. You may be eligible to attend on partial "scholarship."
